Interment was in Green Hills Memorial Park.

JACOB HAMEETMAN

Funeral services for Jacob P. Hameetman, of 2152 W. 255th St., were held Tuesday at St. Mark's Presbyterian Church. Mr. Hameetman, an industrial engineer and furniture designer, died Friday in San Pedro. He was born in Chicago and had been a resident of the Harbor Area for nearly 22 years.

Mr. Hameetman began his career as a consultant engineer with an eastern firm and worked his way throughout the United States and Canada, coming to Los Angeles in 1932 to establish the Gilfillan Bros. woodworking plant on Venice Blvd. He served as plant superintendent for several years, and later established his own plant, the Southern Cabinet Co., in Lomita. Here he produced period furniture for Barker Bros. and the Hoffman Radio Co. of Los Angeles.

During World War II, he sold his plant and retired, but was called into service by the government as a business analyst in the woodworking field. He contributed articles to many of the leading woodworking magazines and had several inventions to his credit.

Mr. Hameetman was formerly a trustee at the St. Mark's Presbyterian Church and served as Community Chest chairman for the Lomita-Harbor City area in 1945. Interment was in Green Hills Memorial Park.
